To Whom It May Concern,

Sharon Ashburn has worked for me for over five years as a housekeeper and caterer. Aside from her well-performed housekeeping duties, Sharon is an excellent cook. She has cooked intimate dinners for my family and friends and has catered parties of up to seventy people for us.

Her food is original and delicious. Her repertoire includes country-style as well as traditional American dishes. She will customize a menu to your taste and needs. She will do the shopping, preparation, serving and cleanup with care and efficiency.

I highly recommend Sharon for any occasion, big or small. She is pleasant and fun, she wastes no time and she aims to please. We are very satisfied with her performance.

Sincerely,

Judith H. Riskind
